

American agriculture, during 1932, and probably for several years to come, will face the most highly competitive market in the history of the industry.

That view, incidentally, is not defeatism, nor does it presuppose a passive acceptance of declining business. It is the view of both national and California farm leaders who consider complete honesty, in looking at the facts, as the first step toward meeting a radically changing market.

Facing the situation candidly, there is every prospect that the fundamental and often ruthless law of "the survival of the fittest" will dominate as never before. Yet the same conditions, in general, will apply to business and all other industries.

And the most gratifying side of the picture is that California, due to its natural advantages and the high efficiency of its farmers is probably better fitted to meet the challenge than any other section of the country.

Better products, bedrock production costs, elimination of unprofitable acres and unprofitable livestock, aggressive and efficient marketing such are the weapons with which to meet such conditions. And California, already far advanced in each of these respects, must go still farther.

Contributing to the prospect of a highly competitive market are three dominant factors, the revival of agriculture in European countries, threatening a diminishing demand for American products; present overproduction of many basic commodities, and unsettled financial conditions resulting in a lessened buying power on the part of consumers.

The recently emphasized trend among foreign nations toward agricultural self-sufficiency, designed to stimulate home production of home necessities and reduce their dependence on other countries already has had a marked effect on American exports.

In the last fiscal year, according to the United States Department of Agriculture, the value of the farm exports of the United States dropped to $1,038,000,000 a reduction of $457,867,000 compared with the preceding year.

"With agriculture reviving in Europe, and with other agricultural export countries competing actively in the European markets," warns Secretary of Agriculture Hyde, "it is evident that continued American production for export, on the scale maintained in recent years, cannot be profitable."

California, fortunately has been spared part of the losses which might be expected from declining export trade, due to the fact that fresh fruit exports, on the whole, have increased while the demand for general agricultural products was decreasing. But even with this increase, there are still crop surpluses in many fresh fruits which should serve to discourage further expansion.

Secretary Hyde, calling for constructive adjustments to meet changing market conditions, sums up the situation as follows:

"In a market that does not keep pace with the increase in production capacity, farmers must adjust their production. If they do this by withdrawing the less productive areas and livestock, they reduce their surpluses and often also their costs of production. Thus they reap a double advantage. They get higher prices and also benefit from wider margins between prices and costs. This favorable margin can

The Washington township American Legion Auxiliary and Post held a joint meeting last Wednesday night at the Niles Memorial building. The auxiliary ladies served the refreshments, with the tables being beautifully decorated in Valentine colors.

Harold Faria entertained the gathering with several piano numbers, while Frank Madruga, of the Centerville fire department, presented an interesting talk and demonstration of the new resuscitator purchased by their fire unit. He said that at any time it could be borrowed.

PROGRAM SLATED AT WILLIAMSON SCHOOL

Pupils and parents of the Williamson school will observe the Washington Bi-Centennial with a patriotic program and tree-planting at the school Friday afternoon, February 26, from 1 to 3 o'clock. An informal piano recital will precede the patriotic numbers.

An acacia tree has been presented to the school by Mrs. J. E. Thane, the school colors being green and yellow. Mrs. Thane will plant the tree, assisted by the pupils.

Pupils taking part in the afternoon's program and piano recital will be Harold Houghton, Dicky Jeleff, George Holeman, Johnny Mack Williamson, Antoinette Holeman, Anna Milcent Shinn, Margaret Williamson, John Dusterberry, Norman Rogers, Robert McDavid, Mable Townsend, Winnie Bendel, Betty Murphy, David Barker, and Jean Colt.

The program will consist of two short patriotic plays, the story of the making of the flag and an incident in the life of Washington, an explanation of why tree-planting has become a part of the Washington Bi-Centennial celebration, several patriotic songs and readings, piano numbers and the planting of the trees.

be increased by individual efficiency.

"It is time to reverse the crude notion that only a continually expanding agriculture can be a profitable agriculture. Expansion is justified only when the market is expanding. When the market is declining or is not expanding at its former rate, agricultural profits wait upon adjustment to the change.

"It is far better to curtail profitably than to overproduce unprofitably."

Mrs. W. W. Briggs And Trio Will Present "Carmen"

Interest of young and old throughout Washington township is centered upon the operatogue to be given at the Washington Union high school on the evening of March 15, for the benefit of the swimming pool. The operatogue will be given by Mrs. W. W. Briggs, of San Francisco, and the program is being sponsored by the Toyon Branch of the Children's Hospital of the East Bay.

Among those who have kept in touch with affairs of music, Mrs. Briggs has been well known for many years as one of the outstanding leaders in music circles in the bay section. Formerly the president of the San Francisco Music Club, and known in Washington township as an always willing sponsor of club and civic progress, Mrs. Briggs has a host of friends who will welcome this opportunity to hear her present "Carmen," said to be the second most popular opera ever produced in this country.

Recently a group of Niles people heard Mrs. Briggs give "The Marriage of Figaro," at the Western Women's Club in San Francisco and returned home so enthusiastic over the delightful occasion that schemes were at once set in motion to bring Mrs. Briggs to this community.

The Toyon branch decided to present the operatogue and Mrs. Briggs most generously offered to give her services. The proposed swimming pool being sponsored by the Lions Club, being the topic uppermost in the minds of township residents at present, and the group believing its mission in the community to foster anything that stands for health and happiness of young people, the Toyon branch decided at a meeting held at the home of Mrs. J. C. Shinn this past week, to donate the proceeds of the operatogue to the swimming pool fund.

Mrs. James R. Whipple, chairman, appointed Mrs. J. C. Shinn chairman of the program; Mrs. Walter Robie, tickets; Mrs. J. M. Williamson, publicity.

Assisting Mrs. Briggs in the presentation of "Carmen," will be the San Francisco trio, cellist, violinist and pianist; a soloist, and a group of dancers from the Williamson school, several of whom are Washington Union high school girls.

Other details of the program are being worked out, but the public is assured one of the most outstanding programs ever presented in this community. Due to the popularity of Mrs. Briggs and the project to be benefited, a capacity audience is expected.

Special student rates will enable every high school boy and girl to enjoy the program.

Principal A. J. Rathbone addressed the Toyon branch at their meeting at Mrs. Shinn's home last week on the outlined plan for the swimming pool, as described elsewhere in this issue of The Register.

Miss La Von Molter Is Recipient Of Many Gifts at Affair

On Friday night, February 19, the Niles Rebekah lodge gave their noble grand, Miss La Von Molter, a surprise shower.

The hall was beautifully decorated and the dining room and tables were decorated in the colors of the lodge.

Miss Molter was seated at the head of the tables. In front of her was a table on which the decorating committee had built a beautiful white boat, which was held in anchor by a small bride and groom, and was loaded with gifts from the forty members present. On the table of Miss Molter was a lovely bride in white and four bridesmaids dressed in pink and green.

After the refreshments were over the table was cleared and Miss Molter proceeded to unload the boat of presents, the opening of the gifts being enjoyed by everyone. Then all went down stairs to the hall, where dancing was in order until midnight.

Niles Will Need New Board Man

Three weeks remain before the final date for filing intention of running for election to the Washington Union high school board of trustees to replace two members whose terms expire this year, and yet so far no one has come forward to announce their candidacy. Those who intend to run must have signified their intentions by March 15, which is ten days prior to the election, to be held Friday, March 25.

F. V. Jones, of Niles, and H. F. Harrold, of Decoto, are the outgoing members of the board. Jones has announced he will not run for re-election this year, therefore if Niles is to be represented on the high school board, it is imperative that some qualified Niles individual come forward before March 15. Jones has a faithful and useful career on the board to his credit, and it is very desirable that Niles should again have such efficient representation on the board.

It is not known yet, whether Harrold, who was appointed to fill the term left vacant by the tragic death of John C. Whipple, will run for re-election. Members elected to the board serve for a period of three years.

MISSION SAN JOSE TO VOTE SATURDAY ON FIRE DISTRICT

Formation Would Not Result In Tax Burden, Sponsors Say

The question of whether Mission San Jose is to have a county fire protection district or not is to be decided Saturday, February 27, when the election for the establishment of the district will be held. This date was set by county board of supervisors at their meeting two weeks ago.

Officers chosen to take charge of the election are E. W. Steinmetz, judge; Lawrence Rogers, clerk; M. J. Whitfield, clerk.

Mission San Jose has a well organized and equipped department at present, which has been maintained through contributions from residents and business men of that place. The purpose of the proposed district is to obtain an even apportionment of the cost of maintaining the department through taxation.

Formation of a fire protection district would not result in a hardship upon any of the property owners, as the reduction in insurance rates would more than offset the slight increase in taxes, the sponsors of the proposed district have pointed out.

LEGION LAUNCHES DRIVE AGAINST DEPRESSION

On Monday, February 15, final "battle orders" were issued from headquarters in New York City to 10,400 American Legion posts throughout the country in the "war against depression" campaign sponsored by the American Legion, the American Federation of Labor, the Association of National Advertisers and the American Legion Auxiliary.

The orders emanated from the headquarters of the Legion's national employment commission in New York and were mailed in sealed envelopes to Legion post commanders and trade union presidents. Definite instructions for work and for a national system of reporting results by wire daily were contained in the directions.

Service stars are to be awarded to employers who add one or more persons to their payroll during the campaign, according to the plans. A team with a captain and a lieutenant will be assigned to each district as divided according to plans. Workers will be chosen not only from Legionnaires but from all other organizations and groups making up the committee.

Every industry and business, large or small, every store and shop, office and factory, will be canvassed during the campaign. The first objective is 1,000,000 new jobs, and each employer will be asked to add one or more persons to his payroll inasmuch as 999,999 other employers will be asked to do the same thing.

NILES HONORS MEMORY OF WASHINGTON AT SCHOOL CEREMONIES

Program Followed by Tree Planting Rites In Niles Park

Niles paused Tuesday from its everyday activity to honor once more the memory of that immortal character in American history who earned the title "Father of His Country," George Washington.

Ceremonies were in the form of joint Niles Chamber of Commerce-Niles Parent-Teachers Association banquet in the grammar school cafeteria, followed by a program presented by the grammar school pupils in the school auditorium, and a tree planting at the Niles park.

Although there may have been greater generals, and greater statesmen, George Washington none the less stands as the greatest character in American history, declared David L. Martin, superintendent of schools in Alameda county, in presenting the chief address on Washington before Tuesday's gathering. The speaker emphasized Washington's outstanding personal character, his supreme courage, high moral integrity, and strict sense of duty as being among the virtues that made the first president such an immortal figure.

If we can be guided by his example of unselfish devotion to his duty and to his nation, then we are true heirs of the great American heritage, represented by his character, was the message left by Martin.

Several patriotic songs were sung by the grammar school pupils during the program. Rose Cattaneo read a selection from Washington's Farewell address, and Robert Solon gave a brief and interesting talk on the boyhood of Washington.

A number on the program which drew the acclaim of the audience was a conversation between Robert Zwissig and John Berchem, in which Zwissig represented a soldier who had fought under Washington.

A playlet, the "First American Flag," presented by students of the fifth grade also was enjoyed by the audience.

F. V. Jones, president of the Niles Chamber of Commerce, presided at the tree planting ceremonies in the Niles park. Mrs. J. E. Thane rendered the dedicatory address while two cherry trees were planted. Mrs. J. W. Myers, of the American Legion Auxiliary, read a poem of her own composition, and Mrs. J. C. Shinn also read a poem, which she had composed several years ago, entitled "A Tribute to The Flag."

42 NEW MEMBERS SECURED FOR P-T. A.

In the recent Niles Parent-Teachers Association membership drive carried on by the grammar school students, forty-two new members were taken into the organization.

The sixth grade won in the competition between the classes, securing twenty members, while the third grade was second with thirteen members. The winning class will be rewarded by a party to be given at the school Thursday evening, the first evening party of the class.

FIRE DEPARTMENTS DEVISE PLAN FOR AID CALLS

Representatives from all the fire departments in Washington township met Friday night in Decoto for the purpose of revising their plans of co-operation among the various fire units. In the event of a major fire in any district, nine fire companies can be immediately assembled, thereby materially strengthening the local department in whose district the fire may occur. Each department has on hand a list of the equipment every department has on hand, which will be at the disposal of all in case of need. This plan of co-operation has been favorably commented upon throughout the state.

Through the system worked out, the fire department closest to the one where the fire is located will be called first, if help is needed. For instance, in a case of a blaze in which the Niles fire department would require aid in extinguishing, the Decoto department would be called, and if more aid would be necessary, the Mission San Jose unit would next be called. It is expected this plan will eliminate unnecessary travel on the part of fire departments when they are not needed.

NEGRO DRAWS 30 DAY SENTENCE IN NILES

Crazed from drinking denatured alcohol, Rufus Thompson, colored, was arrested Monday afternoon when he threatened the lives of several bystanders in front of the Ballot service station in Niles. Constable Tom Silva, of Centerville, made the arrest.

Thompson was hauled before Judge J. A. Silva in the Niles justice court Tuesday and sentenced to thirty days in the county jail, when he pleaded guilty to charges filed against him by Steve Pioletti.

It is reported that Thompson was stationed in front of the service station begging money from passersby and became enraged when told to move on. He threatened first with a knife and later returned to menace bystanders with a rock, in addition to using profanity. A bottle of denatured alcohol was taken from his person.

Miss Lorraine Peterson has been confined to her bed for the past few days with an attack of the flu.

Allan Calderia and Jean Betten-court were home from San Francisco for the holidays where they are attending school.

JUNIOR CHAMBER OF COMMERCE TO PLAN FOR RACING

Work of Pleasanton Members Is Revealed at Meeting Held Early Last Week

That racing may again take place on the Pleasanton race track was revealed as a possibility at a meeting of the board of directors of the Pleasanton Junior Chamber of Commerce last Tuesday night.

Members of the chamber have been busy since last fall interviewing horsemen and promoters in the effort to sound out every possibility of renewing some form of horse racing in Pleasanton.

It is claimed there is not a superior track in the United States and few that equal the Pleasanton turf. The condition of the soil is such that the track is ready for racing within half an hour after a rain storm. In addition to this advantage, the climate, feed, and water make it an unsurpassed training ground.

CREAM SEPARATORS

OPERATION of an electrically driven cream separator is so simple that even a child can run it. There's no hard work. Just plug the electric cord into a wall outlet or lamp socket, push a button, and a tiny electric motor drives the separator for as long as you wish. Easy operation such as this gives freedom from hours of back-straining work.

The motor uses no more electricity than an average size light globe. Valuable milking time is not wasted in operating the separator, for it requires no attention. The hours of labor saved by this method mean dollars in your pocket.

In addition, the electric motor maintains a constant and unchangeable speed in the separator bowl. The result is less butterfat in the skim milk and more in the cream. Increased butterfat in your marketable cream also results in increased dairy profits.

And, since there is a better market for cream than for whole milk, dairymen are further increasing profits by separating whole milk, selling the cream, and feeding the skim milk to calves, hogs, and poultry.

If you want to increase your dairy profits, it will be worth your while to use electric cream separators as others are doing. Our Rural Power Representative will be glad to call on you and give you further information. You may get in touch with him through our nearest office.

OAKLAND SHOW FEATURES MOVIE STAR IN PERSON

Betty Compson, glorious star of a hundred pictures, appears in person at all shows at the Paramount theater, Oakland, this week. She proves as versatile an entertainer on the stage as she is on the screen. She sings, dances, plays the violin, and dresses with the alluring charm which is Hollywood's.

With Miss Compson appear, in Fanchon and Marco's "Star Night Idea," a host of impersonators of famous movie folk. Among these doubles are Laurel and Hardy, Charlie Chaplin, Anna May Wong, Fanny Brice, Joe E. Brown, Lupe Velez, Robert Montgomery, Harry Langdon and others.

Without doubt this stage revue is one of the finest ever to reach Oakland, according to advice of those who have seen the performance, and anyone who would get an intimate touch of motion picture personages should visit the Paramount theater in Oakland this week.

With this great stage revue is offered, on the screen the second sensational romance portrayed by Miriam Hopkins—"Two Kinds of Women." It is an alluring and romantic production, in which the good combats the bad, and woman's nature is held before the spotlight for inspection. With Miss Hopkins in this great picture are starred Phillips Holmes, Wynne Gibson, Irving Pichel and Stuart Irwin.

SWIMMING POOL DRIVE WILL BE LAUNCHED IN TOWNSHIP ON MARCH 2

Centerville Lions To Raise Seventy-Five Hundred Dollars for Project

A swimming pool for Washington township to be located on the Washington Union high school grounds at Centerville seems assured after the meeting of the Centerville Lions club last Wednesday night when definite plans were made for a drive through which $7500 is expected to be raised for the construction of the project. Feeling that construction costs are lower now than they will be for some time, the Centerville club decided to launch its campaign on March 2, and expect to reach their goal within two weeks.

The drive will be in the form of the sale of script books entitling holders to swimming privileges in the pool when completed. The campaign is to be carried into every community in Washington township.

It is expected that the pool will be completed during the early part of June, thus accommodating bathers through the summer season.

The executive committee worked out complete details of the plan at a meeting held at the high school Thursday night.

Sixteen new members were initiated into the Centerville Lions club at their last meeting. The Pleasanton Lions club provided the program for the evening, with Thomas Silver, of Pleasanton, making the initiatory address. A talk on Washington was given by George Richards, principal of the Sunol grammar school, and De Peschke's quartet from Pleasanton sang several numbers. A group from the Washington Union high school orchestra provided music for the evening.

The following men have joined the Centerville Lions, which now brings their membership up to over forty:

C. E. Coyle, Harry Salz, M. S. Alameda, E. Lauppe, Manuel White, John Oliveira, Miles Smith, A. D. Lewis, Jr., F. Ponti, Harry Elsey, Robert Francis, A. K. Logan, Anthony Clark, Ed Rose, Joe Bettencourt, Harper Flores, Joe Bauhoffer, Lorin Marriott, P. C. Hansen, and A. Salvadorini.

St. James Guild Has Enjoyable Meeting

Last Wednesday's meeting of the St. James Guild was one of the most enjoyable held for some time. Mrs. E. Stevenson and Mrs. L. Sharman entertained about thirty members at Memorial hall, which was beautifully decorated with spring flowers and pussy willows. The tables were decorated in yellow.

After a delicious luncheon, Mrs. Bakewell and some of the other delegates gave an account of the recent convention in Oakland.

Mrs. Ormsby and Mrs. Snow will entertain the guild at Memorial hall on March 2. It was decided to give a food sale March 19 at Gregory hall.

A practice game will be played with Solto's nine, Centerville team, Thursday afternoon.

In the last of the interclass basketball games this year, the seniors took a close decision from the sophomores last week to capture the interclass title. The final score was 26 to 23. The sophomores held a slender advantage until the closing moments of the contest when the last year men staged a scoring attack to take the game. Trout for the seniors and Rodrigues for the sophomores were ejected from the game on account of rough tactics.

Although selection of the cast has not yet been completed, work on Booth Tarkington's play, "Seventeen," which is to be presented at the high school April 8, is progressing rapidly under the direction of Miss Aubrey Nicely, high school dramatics coach.

DEDICATION RITES HONOR MEMORY OF TRUSTEES, PRINCIPAL

Redwood Trees Planted for Wright, Logan, and Whipple

Amid impressive ceremonies on the Washington Union high school grounds Friday afternoon, a touching tribute was paid to the memory of John C. Whipple, Andrew Logan, late members of the high school board of trustees, and George Wright, former high school principal, when three redwood trees were formally dedicated to the three men, who during their lives had contributed so much to the successful development of the high school. The dedication rites were part of a program held at the school in observance of the two hundredth anniversary of the birth of George Washington.

In dedicating the tree to Wright, Judge Allen G. Norris highly praised the late principal's part in shaping the moral character of his students, and providing them with inspiration and hope in seeking their careers in life. Norris also lauded Wright for his tireless efforts in striving for the erection of new high school buildings, a goal which was realized before the principal's death.

Stressing his high virtues and calling attention to his praiseworthy acts performed in the interests of the high school, F. V. Jones dedicated the tree in memory of Whipple, while John Oliveira spoke a few words of tribute in dedicating the tree to the memory of Logan. Both Jones and Oliveira are members of the board of trustees at present.

The dedication ceremonies followed a Washington program held in the high school auditorium which was featured by Leland S. Cutler, president of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce.

who presented an able address on George Washington. Cutler, a former resident of Washington township and a graduate of the old Centerville high school, scored the attempt of modern writers to belittle the character and life of one of the greatest men in American history. Because of his feats in early youth, his taking command of the colonists' forces at the outbreak of hostilities with England and leading them to victory in spite of formidable and at times seemingly unsurmountable obstacles, and later assuming the head of the newly created United States and serving in this role with distinction were some of the reasons listed by Cutler why Washington will always remain a hero and a great man in his eyes and those of posterity.

If out of every two hundred years can come a man like Washington who could understand the people and in turn be understood by the people, this republic always will be safe, declared the speaker in closing.

William Dick, high school student body president, also spoke on the life of Washington, while a boys and girls chorus entertained with several numbers appropriate to a Washington program.

Mrs. Herbert Allen delighted the audience with two vocal numbers in the auditorium, and the singing of "Trees" at the close of the dedication ceremonies.

Athletic Leadership And Teamwork Needed For Baseball Season

Pleasanton Varsity Loses to Hayward Farmers Thursday

Rough Game Ends With Score of Thirty to Eight

In a rough tussle, which from the spectators' point of view looked like a football game, the Amador varsity was defeated by the Hayward Farmers to the tune of thirty to eight last Thursday afternoon in a game played at the Pleasanton gym.

The game was speedy and rough, each team making a large number of fouls. The Farmers continually piled points on their lead, while the Dons managed to score only three points in the first half. At the end of the half, Hayward was leading, sixteen to three.

The second half was as rough as the first, and although the referee called sixteen fouls the players continued to play roughly.

Young, of Hayward, working under the basket was able to out-reach the Amador guards and sink goals in spite of any defense.

The final score was Hayward, thirty, and Amador, eight. Bob Silva was high point man for Amador with three, and Cole followed with two.

The starting line-up was: Silva and Clark, forwards; Miller, center; Nerton and Gariboldi, guards.

Pleasanton Coach Deplores the Lack of Interest Shown in Baseball

Just what has become of the school spirit and leadership of the boys at the Amador Valley high school, at Pleasanton, is the problem Coach George Patterson, is trying to solve. Baseball season started last week for all the other schools in the league, but the Amador varsity players have not turned out for baseball practice.

Coach Patterson is making a close check on the boys that turn out for practice, and to the present date only the members of the freshman and sophomore classes have shown an interest in the sport. Their chances of making the team in competition with upper classmen of more experience would ordinarily be slim, but this year so far looks like a freshman and sophomore year.

Patterson is wondering whether the fair sex at the high school is responsible for diverting the attention of the junior and senior boys from the baseball field.

Athletes of the Pleasanton school are lacking team-work and leadership in their sports. In the past years there has been one boy in the school who acted as a leader and set a good example for his followers. This year the school is lacking a good leader among the boys to arouse enthusiasm among his followers. This lack has been pointedly demonstrated in the basketball season just finished.

In past years there has been one boy in each class who stood out and was regarded as a leader among the boys. According to Patterson, the following boys were greatly responsible for the successful outcome of Amador sports in the past, and he hopes that during the baseball season some boy in this year's sports will follow in the tracks of the following graduates:

In the class of 1929, Melbourne Lambert took an active part in inspiring the boys to practice, and each put up a fight for the team during the games.

Henry Vervais, a member of the 1930 graduating class, followed in Lambert's footsteps.

William Bottini, of the class of 1930, made a good example for his brother athletes to follow.

The opening game in the baseball schedule will be played at Castlemont on Tuesday, March 1. The first game in the league schedule will be played at Berkeley when the Dons meet the Deaf and Dumb nine, on the afternoon of Friday, March 11.

The complete baseball schedule for the Amador Dons is as follows:

March 1	Castlemont	there
March 4	Tracy	here
March 11	Deaf & Dumb	there

March 29	Emeryville	there

GASOLINE TAX IS NOT DEDUCTIBLE FROM INCOME

Various Other Items May Be Subtracted From Federal Report

While automobile owners are permitted to make certain important deductions as a result of car ownership and operation in making out their federal income tax returns for 1932, they cannot deduct California gasoline taxes. The list of allowable deductions, however, contains a number of items. Although congress may change the income tax rate at the present session, it is not expected there will be any material change in the deductions allowed automobile owners. Those which were in effect last year are as follows:

All sums paid during the calendar year as registration fees, driver's licenses, state personal taxes and municipal taxes.

Interest on money borrowed for the purchase of an automobile used for either business or pleasure.

All operating and maintenance expenses, including depreciation on automobiles used wholly for business; or a pro rata share of such expenses, representing business use where a passenger car is chiefly (more than fifty per cent) for business. Depreciation usually is figured at twenty per cent per annum.

Automobile insurance on automobiles used for business purposes.

Uncompensated losses, sustained by reason of damage to any automobile used for either business or pleasure.

Damage paid for injuries to persons or for destruction of property, provided the automobile at the time of the accident was being used for business.

The amount of financing charges on automobiles purchased which covers the interest and risk on the loan, but not the amount covering the premium on insurance to protect the finance company's interest.

The amount paid for an automobile used for either business or pleasure, this being a capital expenditure and subject to claim for depreciation where the automobile is used for business purposes.

Loss sustained where an automobile used for pleasure is traded in for a new car.

While the state gasoline tax is deductible in some states, it is not deductible in California for the reason that it is technically a tax on the distributor and not the consumer.

In making deductions, motorists must differentiate between business and pleasure vehicles and between tax payments and capital expenditures.

ACID STOMACH

EXCESS acid is the common cause of indigestion. It results in pain and sourness about two hours after eating. The quick corrective is an alkali which neutralizes acid. The best corrective is Phillips' Milk of Magnesia. It has remained standard with physicians in the 50 years since its invention.

One spoonful of Phillips' Milk of Magnesia neutralizes instantly many times its volume in acid. Harmless, and tasteless, and yet its action is quick. You will never rely on crude methods, once you learn how quickly this method acts.

Be sure to get the genuine. "Milk of Magnesia" has been the U. S. Registered Trade Mark of the Charles H. Phillips Chemical Company and its predecessor Charles H. Phillips since 1875.

Firemen To Ask Council for New Group Insurance

Pleasanton Fire Fighters Are At Present Practically Unprotected

At a meeting of the Pleasanton firemen last Tuesday night, they passed a resolution recommending that that city take out additional insurance on the firemen.

Under the present insurance on the firemen, in case of accident disabling a man, he receives only four dollars and some odd cents per week in addition to his hospital expenses.

Under the proposed insurance, a disabled fireman would receive twenty dollars per week for hospital expenses and twenty dollars per week additional as compensation. Besides these protections the fireman is also protected against permanent injury and death. In the event of the loss of any one member—an eye, a hand, or a foot—the injured would receive fifteen hundred dollars. In the event of the loss of any two or more of these members, or in case of death, the indemnity would amount to three thousand dollars.

The Pleasanton council is in favor of the insurance, which the firemen should have. There remains, however, one obstacle to be overcome before the insurance will be put through.

The premium rate on the insurance is based on the number of fire engines. Pleasanton firemen are called upon to operate three, two owned by the city and one being the rural patrol, which is financially supported by the farmers of the township. The city feels that its men should not go unprotected while helping operate the rural district's fire fighting equipment, and at the same time they feel that it is not fair to expect the city to pay for the insurance premiums on the rural equipment.

This question of financing the rural equipment is the problem to be solved.

In the past the upkeep of the rural fire truck has been financed through individual subscription by the farmers. However, the subscriptions have fallen off to such an extent that the continued operation of the equipment is in danger of being suspended.

The formation of a rural fire district would solve all these problems. Such a step, it has been estimated would cause a two-cent increase in the tax rate. Here, again the citizens would seem to be "passing the buck" when it comes to facing the issue.

Pleasanton Y.M.I. Cagers Win Over Oakland Athletes

Score of Forty to Twenty- Nine Tells Story of Game

Pleasanton Y. M. I. cagers defeated the Warren Brothers, of Oakland, in a game played at the Amador gym February 9.

The Y. M. I. players outclassed their opponents in their playing and at the end of the half, Pleasanton was leading 20 to 12. Smith, Pleasanton center, scored fourteen points during this period.

The second half of the game continued in the same speed as the first half. Not many baskets were scored because Smith was taken out during this quarter.

Smith returned in the last quarter and scored eight points. Both teams were playing at fast speed but at the sound of the whistle the Y. M. I. were leading with 40 points while the visitors were trailing with 29. The team maintained its speed through the entire game by the use of a number of substitutes.

The lineup for the Y. M. I. was Garcia, f, 6; Smith, c, 22; L. Anselmo, f, 6; Joe Anselmo, g, 4; Paulo, g, 2; Azeveda, f.

FORMER PLEASANTON WOMAN DIES IN LOS ANGELES FEBRUARY 7

Mrs. Annie Bass Was Widow of Well Known Doctor in That Region

Another old resident of Pleasanton was called by death when Mrs. Annie Bass, of Los Angeles, passed away February 7. She lived to the ripe old age of 93.

Mrs. Bass was the widow of the late Dr. C. A. Bass, a pioneer in that community, who passed away several years ago. Bass practiced for a number of years in Pleasanton, Sunol and Irvington.

Dr. and Mrs. Bass made their home on St. John street and had a wide circle of friends in that city. She was a native of Iowa. She was related to the Vanderwort family, also pioneers of Pleasanton.

She leaves to survive her a daughter, Mrs. M. B. Sutor, and a grandson, Gordon Sutor, both of San Pedro.

SUNOL MAN DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Said to have died from a heart attack, Michael D. McInerney, of Sunol, was found lying dead outside the kitchen of the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Wiekling, of Glen avenue, Sunday morning.

McInerney was seventy years of age. He was a native of Ireland and had been in California for twenty-seven years. He had been employed as gardener by Henry Wiekling for the past five years.

Historical Interest of Old Boston Navy Yard

The Boston navy yard, the second oldest in the United States, has an historical interest on account of its activities during the War of 1812, the Civil war, the war with Spain, and especially during the World war. It has been a very important cog in the United States naval war machine.

Few persons are aware that up to 1881 39 war vessels had been built at this navy yard, the Frolic being the first launched in 1813; the second, the frigate Independence, launched on June 22, 1814. Among other ships constructed here was the sloop of war Cumberland, whose keel was laid in 1818, though it was not completed till 1842. This was one of the vessels moored at the Norfolk navy yard when it was evacuated by the Union force and set on fire by order of Admiral Paulding on March 8, 1862, so that all the property that might be desired by the Confederacy would be destroyed. The Cumberland was saved from destruction by the heroic effort of Lieut. T. O. Selfridge, who with the small steamer Yankee towed her to an anchorage off Fort-ress Monroe.

But when the Confederate ironclad Merrimack came down Chesapeake bay and attacked the Union fleet she rammed the Cumberland, cutting a large hole in her side that caused her to sink in a few minutes. When her acting commander, Lieut. George U. Morris, was commanded to surrender he replied: "Never. We will sink with our colors flying." Of other ships built at the Boston navy yard the Hartford, launched in 1858, made a memorable record of history as the flagship of Admiral Farragut on April 25, 1862, when he received the surrender of New Orleans; also in the successful engagement in Mobile bay on August 5, 1864.—Boston Herald.

Sunspot Cycles Said to Affect Wild Creatures

Copley Amory, wealthy friend of the Eskimos, took thirty naturalists to his Labrador lodge to find out why game is abundant some years and scarce other years, and incidentally to cure them of hay fever. From wise old Eskimos he had learned that epidemics creep over the northern wilds in flocks, afflicting all kinds of animals, including fishes and domestic dogs. "In two-three more years," Eskimos would say, "fever will kill off rabbits, molly coddy will make many dogs go mad, hunters will return empty-handed and many people will die."

Investigating conditions on the ground, the professors concluded that game is governed by alternating periods of scarcity and plenty, which keep step with the eleven-year sunspot cycles. When sunspots are most numerous, ultra-violet light is most intense, and this biological radiation is as good for cubs as cod liver oil is for babies.

But that is the least part of the story. The professors discovered that parasites mean more to wild animals than white sunshine. Ultra-violet light is a germicide; it kills the parasites that, in the absence of such light, multiply by millions in "living-fur coats" and kill the animals.—Los Angeles Times.

Races of Mankind

There are various classifications of mankind according to race. One classification gives six races. Mongolian, Caucasian, Negro, Semitic, Malayan and Red Indian. The late Professor Brinton, American ethnologist, divided mankind into five chief groups—Caucasian, Mongolian, Malay, Ethiopian and American Indian. Doctor Hrdlicka of the division of physical anthropology, United States museum, gives three main human races, as follows: White, including the Mediterraneans, the Alpines and the Nordics; Yellow-browns, including the Mongoloids, the Malays and the American Indians; Blacks, including the Negro, Negrito and Bushmen, the Melanesian negroes and Australian aborigines and African negroes.

Not Infallible Signs

Swallows flying low, according to a theory of the present, are a sign of coming rain. But it is possible to stand on the south shore of Long Island, for instance, and see these birds flying as low as one's head, this occurrence to be followed by a week of sunshine. Oddly enough, the periodic mysterious disappearance of the swallows was responsible for the old-time theory that these birds hibernated in the water in mud.

Heavier fur than usual on animals such as bears and beavers, is held to forecast a cold winter, but naturalists deride this theory.—New York Times.

Merely Idle Stories

There is no authentic record of a cross between the human race and lower animals of any species whatever. According to the Smithsonian institution, numerous reports of crosses between human beings on the one hand and apes, bears, dogs and other animals on the other have invariably proved groundless when investigated by competent scientists.

Hayward Farmers Defeat Amador B Squad Last Week

Seventeen to Thirteen Is Final Score of Game

The Hayward Farmers journeyed to Pleasanton February 11 and by hard work defeated the Pleasanton B five in the last game of the Southern Alameda County League by a score of seventeen to thirteen.

Due to the fact that the Don forwards were playing a poor game and were continually missing easy shots, the teamwork of the remaining players was slowed up. At the end of the half the score was ten to three in favor of Hayward.

During the second half the Dons were determined to close up the gap and began playing a faster game. They managed to score nine points while Hayward followed closely with seven, so that at the sound of the whistle the Dons were still trailing.

Muggs George was high point man with seven points. The starting line-up was: Bottini and Perry, forwards; George, center; Haas, and Marino, guards.

AMADOR ALUMNI CAGERS LOSE TO NATIVE SON FIVE

Visitors' Two Point Lead
Gained in Last Minute of Play

Pleasanton Alumni hoopslers lost a game to the Mountain View Native Sons in a tussle played at the Amador gym, at Pleasanton, on February 9, by a score of 37 to 35.

During the first half the Alumni showed great skill in scoring fifteen points against the visitors' nine.

During the second half Powers, Alumni center, who was forced to play the entire game without a rest, began to slow up, a fact which gave the Mountain View boys a chance to work their tip-off plays. During this period the Alumni got behind and for a time the visitors were leading 31 to 23.

Then the break came for the Alumni when Arendt made three baskets, immediately followed by another by Nerton to tie up the score. The game from here on was a race to get the lead and hold it. The teams either kept the score tied or trailed by one field goal. The best basketball played was displayed by both teams at this period. In the last minute of play Mountain View scored a basket and at the end they were leading with a two point lead.

The lineup for the Alumni was as follows: Arendt, f, 14 points; Nevis, f, 3; Powers, c, 5; Nerton, g, 5; Azeveda, f, 6; Paulo, g, 5; Vervais, g, 1.

AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY PLANS MAY POPPY SALE

Flowers To Be Sold on Saturday Just Preceding
Memorial Day

Plans for the annual poppy sale sponsored by the Pleasanton American Legion Auxiliary for the benefit of the War Veterans occupied the members at their business meeting last Wednesday evening.

The sale of the poppies will not take place until May 28, the Saturday before Memorial Day.

The poppies are manufactured in the late fall and early winter. This work is done by disabled veterans in government hospitals and in special convalescent work shops maintained by the auxiliary. Throughout the winter and spring months these disabled men are given profitable employment shaping the little red flowers.

The program comes to a climax in May, when on the Saturday before Memorial Day the sale of the poppies take place on the Pleasanton streets.

The work is given only to men receiving little or no government compensation. The proceeds are a true God-send to many hundreds of disabled veterans.

WOULD ALTER OUR FINANCIAL HABITS

By ROME C. STEPHENSON
Former President American Bankers Association.

THE most constructive action that can be taken toward bringing about greater stability in our business life is the development of a more balanced attitude in the minds of all of our people in regard to the right relationship between saving and spending.

R. C. STEPHENSON

There is more practical, workable economics in the sentence: Save during prosperity so as to be able to spend during depression; than in a whole library full of charts and tables and books on political economy.

I do not believe it is an impracticable dream to bring about an era of more intelligent saving and spending on the part of our people. It is not impossible to change the habits of the population. It has been done in many lines. The habits of our people have been improved and the health of the nation promoted in many ways by consistent programs of advertising and education that have brought about better hygienic understanding and practice.

The medical profession has virtually banished the scourge of some diseases by persistent, intelligent campaigns of preventive sanitary measures and inoculations, requiring new understandings, new habits among many millions of our people. Also a large part of this evolution of public health improvement has naturally developed through the intelligent advertising of many products that have to do with bodily care. I refer to the manufacturer and distributors of such things as more healthful foods, more effective toothbrushes, shoe products with more wholesome values of nutrition and countless other practical ideas that have become commonplace in our daily business life, and that have become a part, too, of the very texture of the personal habits and health of great masses of our people.

If it has been good advertising and good business for so many of our national producers to spend millions of dollars thus to inculcate new habits of personal hygiene and personal care, is it not good business and good advertising for our banking interests to lay similar stress during the next period of prosperity upon better financial habits and customs of our people?

Bankers above all are interested in stable, wholesome business. They have much to gain by a state of sound financial health among the people, and most to lose by epidemics of economic maladies such as have swept the country during the past two years.

Height of Human Agony in Waiting Return of Lost

In Brittany they are always awaiting the return of lost fishermen. Day after day the bereaved ones of their families wait, gazing out over the treacherous waters. Mothers, wives, sweethearts haunt the quays. For them, in the strange absence of their beloved ones, all life is suspended. Bodies without hope or conscious life, almost without souls, they wait upon the piers. Of all the agonies that rack the human heart, such waiting is the cruellest. The uncertainty of hope deferred plunges the heart into a constancy of the bitterest grief. Better far to know the worst than to hope on and on, without even the poignant consolation of knowledge of the dear one's fate. That persistent anxiety and dread paralyzes every healthful activity, destroys the savor of one's food, makes every night a sleepless one and exiles all joy and peace from human souls. The only refuge left such Breton fisherfolk in life is passionate and daily prayer to God for the return of the missing men who went out upon the sea, and who have not returned.—Le Matin (Paris).
